BACKGROUND

Tommy Breedlove is one of the first to join Mike Edwards in his small group of friends, who would later become Project Exodus Relief. Growing up in Ozark, Missouri, he was always interested in Infantry. He knew he wanted to be Airborne, wisely following in his father's footsteps.

He honorably served in two wars: Iraq (5 years) and Afghanistan (4 years). During these years, he worked side by side with Iraqi and Afghan soldiers in Baghdad, Nasiriyah, Jalula, Sadia, Baqubah, and Kabul.

Tommy's work descriptions include: U.S. Army Infantry Squad leader, Blackwater USA Counter Assault Team Gunner/Truck Commander, Door Gunner Bell 412, U.S. Ambassador's Advance Team Leader, QRF, Operations Security Specialist, Advisor to President Hamid Karzai (Training/Mentoring Presidents Protection Service, and Vice Presidents Personal Protection. D-10).

Tommy is a humble and kind team member. He leads through peaceful strength and is a role model for the team. He has the courage of steel and the determination to get things done right. He brings all of these character qualities and more to our Project Exodus Relief team. His operations intelligence makes this group invincible.

He has been awarded medals; all from before the wars, for various achievements in training. The Blackwater rifle was awarded for actions under fire in Baghdad.

Everything he trained for during his military career has prepared him for what he is doing now. He calls it "Divine intervention," and rightfully so. If there is one thing that I want you to walk away with today is that, even though Tommy doesn't have an official title, during the past few months, he has been doing everything and anything that is needed to help
